

The Academy at Bank of America

Education that's transforming lives and communities

The Academy builds on Bank of America's commitment to communities through educational offerings that help prepare individuals for a career, foster economic mobility, build skills, and inspire career confidence.

Committed to the community

At Bank of America, our purpose is to help make financial lives better through the power of every connection. With the depth of our expertise, resources and geographic reach, we're in a unique position to help promote opportunities for many different populations.

Helping to fuel economic growth through skills development

We're advancing economic and social progress for individuals and communities through partnerships with local nonprofits, academic institutions and other networks. Bank of America's focus on skills training helps meet local market job needs in a variety of industries.

"We make broad-ranging investments to attract and develop talented teammates who serve our clients and local communities every day, and who can build long, successful careers with our company."
